

Little Red Riding Hood

You are learning to write an argument.

Fill out this template with points that support either the guilt or innocence of each character in relation to how responsible they were for Red's death.

Your task will then be to argue your point of view against others in the class to attempt to convince the District Attorney (Mr. Lamb) to:

- Charge one of the characters or assign responsibility posthumously to Red or Granny

	Little Red Riding	The Mother	The Woodcutter(s)	The Wolf	Granny
Reasons for being guilty	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> She didn't listen to her Mum 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> She neglected Red and left her alone 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> They took no responsibility for a lost child on her own 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> He ate her 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> She got sick
What did they do wrong?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> She told the wolf where Granny's house was 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> She put too much responsibility into the hands of a minor] 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> He didn't pursue her to make sure she was safe 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> He tricked her into talking to her 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> She lived too far away forcing Red to make a dangerous trip to see her. Her house was too isolated and the wood was known to be dangerous
What evidence or facts do you have to support it?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> She knew about the wolf She went by herself on the dangerous forest path 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> She knew about the danger of the woods and the wolf but failed to properly warn Red 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> They knew about the wolf but failed to act accordingly They should have detained the wolf 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> She didn't provide a safe or secure house
Prove it!	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> She decided to talk to the wolf but refused to talk to woodcutters who tried to warn her about the wolf She decided to take the short path through the dangerous woods She talking to an animal and a dangerous one at that 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> She didn't tell Red the right way to go Too busy to care She knew her daughter was too young to have the responsibility of taking a package to Granny's but let he go anyway
